Attention: Mr. Doug Larder, Q.C.
General Counsel

Dear Sir:

Re: Proceeding No. 1457147
Apache Canada Ltd.

We have reviewed Mr. Popowich's letter of January 4, 2007, the Board's letter of December 21, 2006, and Mr. Ross' letter of January 5, 2007. Apache is in agreement with the position set out in Mr. Ross' letter that if EnCana wishes to make a submission which was not provided for in the Board's various procedural orders, it should be required to apply to the Board for the right to do so. In the absence of being granted this right, Apache objects to EnCana's Surrebuttal and respectfully submits that it would be an error for the Board to rely on EnCana's further submissions.

Yours truly,

FASKEN MARTINEAU DuMOULIN LLP
