Professional Experience

I have 20 years experience with a wide variety of litigation at all levels of court in Alberta. In addition, I have been hired as an arbitrator and am regularly retained as a mediator and negotiator, and to appear as counsel representing parties at mediations and arbitrations. I also appear in front of a variety of administrative boards and tribunals.

My primary areas of interest are:

Arbitration, mediation, and negotiation

Engineering, environmental, construction and technology litigation

Administrative proceedings and judicial review, particularly relating to regulated industries and professional discipline hearings

Professional negligence litigation

Employment law
